

The SBC Journalism Scholarship

Are you curious about people, current events and the world around you? Do you like stories and communicating?

If you're interested in describing your world through the written word, photos, video or audio, you could make a great journalist. Be part of history, see it happening, and report it. It's an important, exciting and challenging role in a young country that's changing fast.

The Seychelles Broadcasting Corporation (SBC) is delighted to offer its SBC Journalism Scholarships for young people who wish to enroll for the University of Seychelles Diploma in Journalism course (2020-2022).

The 3-year scholarship will cover:

- full tuition fees
- a stipend

Students will be bonded with the SBC and upon successful completion of the course they will be expected to be employed with the SBC for at least three years.

What is expected?

The course will teach you the knowledge and skills you need to work as a professional journalist. Modules cover everything from language and international affairs to techniques of written and broadcast journalism. This is a fine example of practice-oriented education. There is no compulsory daily attendance - classes are only once a week. On other days you can have work experience in journalism and production (radio and TV) at the SBC itself. This will include support and advice from experienced journalists and broadcasters on your career development. This is a fantastic opportunity for those who wish to start their career in this highly enriching and fast evolving field of work!

Admission Requirements:

- You must have a strong grasp of English in order to participate fully in the course, so we expect you to be proficient in speaking and writing English.
- You must also have at least one A level, or three IGCSEs (grade C or above), or practical experience in any field where language skills are important.

How to apply?

Applicants are required to send their CV with supporting documentation, a letter of motivation (in English) and two references to:

Head of Human Resources and Administration
SBC - P.O. Box 321 - Victoria or by e-mail to: hr@sbcs.sc

APPLY by 25th February 2020
